Fact Sheet

Set amid a coconut plantation, Amanpuri – the inaugural property in Aman’s intimate and renowned portfolio – overlooks a crescent of white sand and turquoise water on Phuket’s west coast. Guest Pavilions and Villas enjoy exclusive privacy and panoramic views of the Andaman Sea, enhanced nightly by magnificent sunsets. Beyond the secluded beach, a fleet of cruisers is on-hand for island hopping, fishing and scuba-diving, while a number of Buddhist temples lie within easy reach. Eastern philosophy is practised in the Holistic Wellness Centre too, housed in a series of serene pavilions cascading down the lush hillside.

Location

- Amanpuri lies on a peninsula on the west coast of the Thai island of Phuket
- The property includes a stretch of Pansea Beach, overlooking the Andaman Sea

Getting There

- Amanpuri is a 30-minute drive from Phuket International airport (HKT)
- Direct flights connect with Abu Dhabi, Bangkok, Beijing, Doha, Dubai, Frankfurt, Hong Kong, Kuala Lumpur, Seoul, Shanghai, Singapore and Sydney

Complimentary Inclusions

- In-room refreshments and beverages (excluding spirits)
- Use of selected non-motorised watersports equipment
- Daily afternoon tea
- Daily movement class
- Access to wellness facilities including glass-walled gym, tennis courts, infrared sauna, steam room, and cold plunge pool

Accommodation

Discretely positioned across the coconut grove, Amanpuri's 40 wood-panelled, light-filled guest Pavilions all enjoy kingsize beds, large bathrooms, dressing areas and spacious outdoor salas for lounging and dining. While the distinctive pointed, tiled roofs nod to the ancient architecture of Ayutthaya, inside the aesthetic is clean and contemporary. The 40 Villas are individually decorated with handpicked art and antiques.
