Fireside storytelling and stargazing in the evenings enable a deeper immersion in Native American culture, while expert archaeologists and palaeontologists share the region's history.

Exclusive adventures can be arranged to complement a celebratory stay.

Guests seeking relaxation and tranquillity before or after the excitement of celebrations can retreat to Amangiri's 25,000 square-foot Spa, which offers an extensive menu of massages, beauty treatments, and restorative therapies.

Amangiri Adventures

Thousands of square miles of untouched desert landscape surround Amangiri, offering an exclusive opportunity for outdoor adventures from hiking and climbing to scenic flights, boating on Lake Powell, and horseback riding. Via Ferrata

Invented centuries ago in the Italian Alps, a Via Ferrata ('iron path') is a series of cables and ladder rungs fixed to a rock face to enable the ascent of steep mountain routes. Amangiri offers an extensive Via Ferrata network with seven guided routes. Each climbs around 400 feet through the otherworldly landscape offering breathtaking views. Several of the routes connect to the Cave Peak Stairway, a 120-step, ladder-style suspension bridge.

Amangiri's expert therapists offer signature treatments and journeys drawing on the elements of earth, wind, fire, and water.
